MEDIA POLICIES

COVERING THE HURRICANES

Interview requests for women's basketball student-athletes and coaches must be submitted to Assistant Director of Communications Alex Schwartz (alexschwartz@miami.edu) in all instances. Schwartz and the Miami communications staff will make every effort to schedule a separate time to accommodate those requests, based on time constraints and academic/meeting obligations.

LIVE BROADCASTS

It is not permissible for any non-rights holder to broadcast over the air, stream over the internet (audio or video), or transmit in any other way, any live event without the consent of the University of Miami Athletics Department. Live events include varsity contests, press conferences (including but not limited to weekly scheduled and postgame press conferences) and any other group media availability. Exceptions may be made for any major news-breaking event.

ARCHIVING OF EVENT AUDIO/VIDEO

It is not permissible for any non-rights holder to post, place, broadcast, or make available in any other way, audio or video event content that exceeds three (3) minutes in length. Events are defined as varsity contests, press conferences and any other group media availability. Archiving may not begin until the conclusion of the entire event. It is not permissible to reuse or post any video produced and/or owned by the University of Miami Athletics without the consent of the university.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Miami follows NCAA and ACC rules regarding media representatives photographing games. Only properly credentialed photographers will be allowed in the designated photo areas of the BankUnited Center as specified by the NCAA and ACC.

NO photographers will be permitted to shoot from the sidelines. All photographers must remain in the BankUnited Center's designated photo areas along the baselines. Photo credentials are subject to revocation by the Miami Athletic Communications office at any time.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Requests for working media and photo credentials should be submitted to Alex Schwartz at alexschwartz@miami.edu by sports editors or sports directors of accredited media outlets. Requests should be made as early as possible and should be limited to working media only. Requests made within two days of the game may not be considered.

UNAUTHORIZED CREDENTIAL USE

Credentials will be issued to working media only. Media credentials are not transferable and use by anyone other than members of the working media is unauthorized. Media credentials used in an unauthorized manner will be revoked immediately. News organizations allowing unauthorized individuals to use credentials will have their credentials revoked for the remainder of the year.

QUESTIONS?

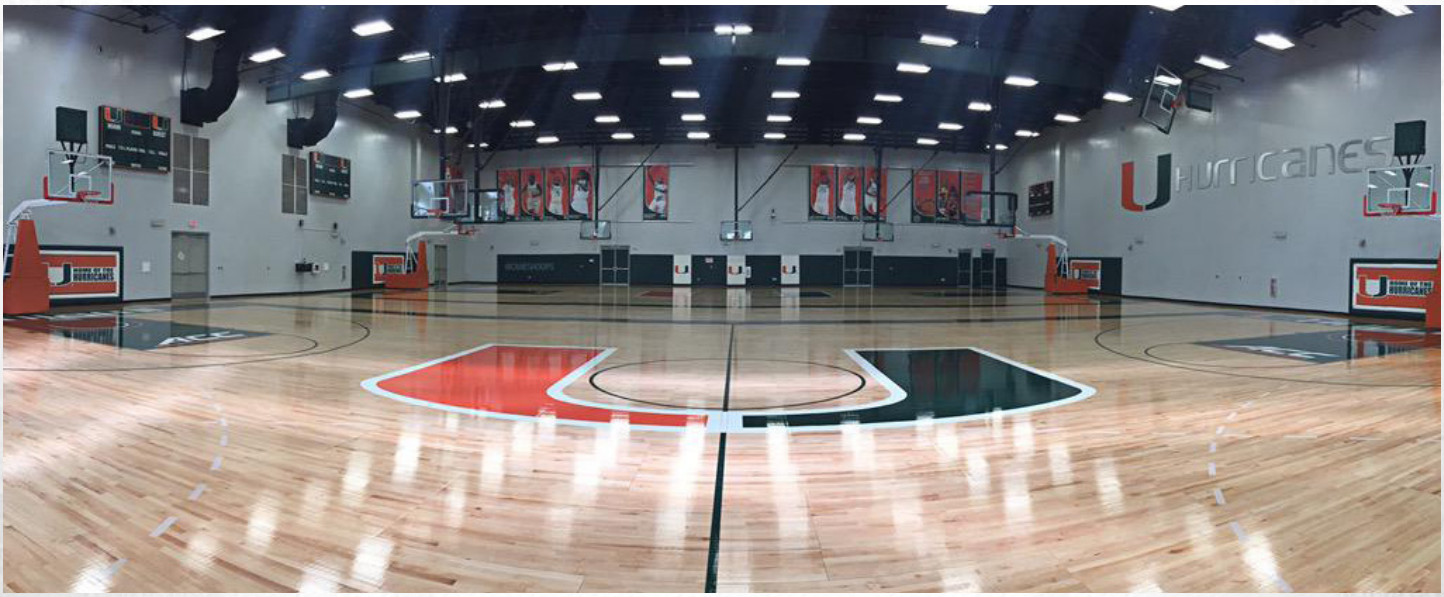
Please contact Alex Schwartz via email at alexschwartz@miami.edu or by phone at 305-284-3249 (office) or 609-802-3674 (cell) with any questions about the University of Miami women's basketball team.

FACILITIES

BANKUNITED CENTER

The BankUnited Center (BUC) is the 200,000 square foot, 7,972-seat arena that is home to the University of Miami men's and women's basketball teams. The Hurricanes played their first game in the arena Jan. 15, 2003 against Boston College. Since then, Miami has defeated three top-five teams in the building and hosted postseason WNIT games.

Since its opening, the BUC has hosted a number of memorable events and sold-out shows, including Green Day, Coldplay, John Mayer, Drake, The Fray and Barry Manilow, as well as being the setting for televised events and award shows such as the 2004 Presidential Debates, Unplugged featuring Ricky Martin and Thalia, Premio Lo Nuestro, Premios Juventud, Billboard's Latin Music Awards and, most recently, The X Factor. The venue has also welcomed world-renowned figures and politicians, including His Holiness the Dalai Lama, former President Bill Clinton, current President Barack Obama, former Secretary of State Hillary Clinton and Senator John McCain.



FIELDHOUSE

The 29,000-square foot on-campus practice facility that is conveniently located adjacent to the BankUnited Center opened in March of 2009. The facility houses a pair of full-sized basketball courts with 14 baskets, as well as a multi-purpose room to host a variety of events. Miami basketball players have access to the secure facility 24 hours per day, allowing the Hurricanes court time at any time all year around. UM players use the facility for both conditioning and practice sessions, as well as for individual workouts and pick-up games. The Fieldhouse was also honored for its sustainability components, earning the LEED Gold designation, established by the U.S. Green Building Council & verified by the Green Building Certification Institute.

UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATION

University President

Dr. Julio Frenk, a noted leader in global public health and a renowned scholar and academic, was named the sixth president of the University of Miami in April 2015. He will assume his leadership post on August 16, 2015.

Prior to joining the University of Miami, Dr. Frenk was Dean of the Faculty at the Harvard T.H. Chan School of Public Health since January 2009. While at Harvard, he was also the T & G Angelopoulos Professor of Public Health and International Development, a joint appointment with the Harvard Kennedy School of Government.

Dr. Frenk served as the Minister of Health of Mexico from 2000 to 2006. He pursued an ambitious agenda to reform the nation's health system and introduced a program of comprehensive universal health insurance, known as Seguro Popular, which expanded access to health care for tens of millions of uninsured Mexicans.

Dr. Frenk was the founding director-general of the National Institute of Public Health in Mexico, one of the leading institutions of health education and research in the developing world. In 1998 Dr. Frenk joined the World Health Organization (WHO) as executive director in charge of Evidence and Information for Policy, WHO's first-ever unit explicitly charged with developing a scientific foundation for health policy to achieve better outcomes.

He also served as a senior fellow in the global health program of the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation and as president of the Carso Health Institute in Mexico City. He is the founding chair of the board of the Institute for Health Metrics and Evaluation at the University of Washington. He also co-chaired the Commission on the Education of Health Professionals for the 21st Century, which published its influential report in the leading journal The Lancet in 2010, triggering a large number of follow-up initiatives throughout the world.

Dr. Frenk holds a medical degree from the National Autonomous University of Mexico, as well as a master of public health and a joint doctorate in Medical Care Organization and in Sociology from the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor. He has been awarded honorary doctorates from several institutions of higher learning. In September of 2008, Dr. Frenk received the Clinton Global Citizen Award for changing "the way practitioners and policy makers across the world think about health."

He is a member of the U.S. Institute of Medicine, American Academy of Arts and Sciences, and National Academy of Medicine of Mexico.

In addition to his scholarly works, which include more than 140 articles in academic journals, as well as many books and book chapters, he has written two best-selling novels for youngsters explaining the functions of the human body.

BLAKE JAMES

Director of Athletics
Minnesota State-Mankato, 1992

Blake James was named the University of Miami's Director of Athletics on Feb. 8, 2013. Prior to being named AD, James served Miami athletics in the roles of Interim AD and Senior Associate AD for Development and Ticket Operations. James oversaw the day-to-day operations of development, ticket sales and ticket operations. He also was a member of the Hurricanes' senior staff and provided sport supervision.

James is currently in the fifth year of his third stint at Miami and is in his third year as the Director of Athletics. Since taking over as Director of Athletics, James has spearheaded a tremendous growth in annual giving, ticket sales and merchandise sales, while maintaining a strong academic standard for all student-athletes.

During this past fiscal year, James oversaw the Miami Hurricane Club surpass its annual fundraising goal of $9.9 million to the Student-Athlete Excellence Fund. In the classroom, five Miami teams were publically honored for being among the top 10 percent in the Academic Progress Rates (APR) for the second-consecutive year. In addition, seven Hurricane teams scored 990 or better out of a possible 1,000 points - men's basketball (990), men's XC (1000), men's diving (1000), golf (1000), soccer (991) and women's swimming (1000) in the latest NCAA APR.

Under James' leadership, Miami also has seen several facility enhancements, beginning with the opening of the Schwartz Center for Athletic Excellence, the completion of the student-athlete training table and dining hall, a new artificial and natural playing surface, a center hung scoreboard at the BankUnited Center.

Most recently, James was instrumental in helping Miami strike one of the largest apparel deals in the country with adidas.

James came to UM after spending seven years the University of Maine, where he first served as Senior Associate Athletic Director before serving as Director of Athletics from July 2005 to September 2010. As Senior Associate AD, his primary responsibilities focused on marketing, ticketing, retail operations, athletic development along with men's and women's track and field, cross country, men's soccer, men's basketball and baseball.

During his tenure at Maine, athletics experienced tremendous success, including three trips to the Frozen Four for the men's ice hockey program and NCAA playoff berths for football, baseball (two), women's basketball and softball. Additionally, James implemented a comprehensive $17 million facility improvement plan, which included an indoor practice facility and numerous other facility upgrades and renovations. Academically, the program flourished, earning the conference academic cup twice and maintaining better than a 3.0 GPA.

Prior to his stint at Maine, he worked in athletic development at Providence College, where he established the "Friars Forever" campaign and the Friar Athletic Fund.

James is no stranger to South Florida, beginning his athletic career with the University of Miami, working in ticket sales, corporate sales and athletic development. In April 1995, he was hired as Miami's Director of Ticket Sales, serving in that capacity until October 1997, when he was named an athletic development officer at the University of Nebraska. He returned to Miami in 1998 as the Director of Major Gifts and Corporate Sales. He was promoted to the Director of Athletic Development at Miami in March 2000 before moving on to Providence in 2002.

He graduated from Minnesota State University - Mankato with a bachelor's degree in marketing in 1992 and later received his master's degree from St. Thomas University in 1994.

He and his wife, Kelly, have two children: daughter, Haley, and son, Ryan.

ATHLETICS ADMINISTRATION

DR. MARVIN DAWKINS

Faculty Athletics Representative
Edward Waters College, 1970

Dr. Marvin Dawkins, a distinguished professor in the Department of Sociology at the University of Miami, is in his third year as the Faculty Athletics Representative. He was named to the post in April 2012, replacing Clyde McCoy after his 17 years of service in that role.

In his FAR post, Dawkins is responsible for ensuring the academic integrity of students participating in University athletic programs and helping to oversee institutional control of the Department of Athletics. The Faculty Athletics Representative serves as a liaison between the University and the athletic department. This individual is the University's voting delegate to the ACC and represents UM with the NCAA and ACC.

Dawkins received his doctorate from Florida State and completed his postdoctoral research fellowships at Howard University and The Johns Hopkins University. He previously served on the faculties of the University of Maryland, Old Dominion University and the University of Wisconsin-Parkside.

His research focuses on issues of race and social equity in such areas as education, career aspirations and mobility, substance abuse prevention, and sports. He has published widely in these areas, including his most recent article titled "Race and Pathways to Power in the National Football League" (with Jomills H. Braddock and Erica Smith), which appears in American Behavioral Scientist (2012). His research on golf includes book chapters, scholarly articles, and the book African American Golfers During the Jim Crow Era (Praeger 2000), coauthored with Graham C. Kinloch. Dawkins was recently appointed to the United States Golf Association Museum Committee and is currently completing a study on the media treatment of black golfers from the Jim Crow era to the present.

TONY HERNANDEZ

Deputy AD / Business Operations
Miami, 1997

Tony Hernandez, joined the University of Miami Athletic Department in 1998 and is currently the Deputy Athletic Director. In his role, he oversees the following operations and sports: Financial and Business Operations, Human Resources, Ticket Operations, Equipment Room, Video Services, adidas Relations, Legal/Contractual Matters, Men's Basketball, Baseball, and Track and Field.

Hernandez joined the University of Miami Athletic Department in February of 1998 as a Graduate Assistant in Academic Services. He was hired full-time in 1999 as a Compliance Coordinator, subsequently being promoted to Director of Compliance in 2002, Assistant AD for Compliance in 2004, Associate AD for Compliance in 2005 and Senior Associate Athletic Director in 2007. In 2005, he also served as the Interim Associate AD for Development and has served as the Interim Associate AD for External Affairs on two separate occasions. During his term as Interim Associate AD for Development, the Hurricane Club exceeded its annual giving budgetary goal by nearly ten percent.

By request of former President Shalala, Hernandez served as Miami's Acting Athletic Director for almost two months, following Kirby Hocutt's departure to take the position of Director of Athletics at Texas Tech in February 2011.

In addition to his work at UM, Hernandez has been involved at the conference and national level. He is currently serving or has previously served on the following committees:

- NCAA Student-Athlete Reinstatement Committee
- NCAA Amateurism Cabinet
- ACC Finance Committee
- Past President of the National Association of Athletic Compliance (NAAC)
- Division 1-A Athletic Directors' Compliance Task Force
- NCAA Academics/Eligibility/Compliance Cabinet
- ACC Constitution and Bylaws Committee
- Chair of the NCAA Initial-Eligibility Waivers Sub-Committee.

He is also an adjunct professor for Sports Law in the School of Education at Miami and has served as an adjunct faculty member at Florida Atlantic University.

Hernandez earned both a law degree and a bachelor's of business administration in finance from the University of Miami. He is a member of Iron Arrow, the highest honor attainable at UM, and served a term as president. He is married to the former Melissa Schumacher and they have two sons, Anthony Jr. and Austin.

ATHLETICS ADMINISTRATION

JENNIFER STRAWLEY

Deputy AD / SWA
Pennsylvania, 1998

Jennifer Strawley joined the University of Miami on June 18, 2012, and currently serves as Deputy Director of Athletics and Senior Woman Administrator.

In her role, she oversees the following sports and operations; football, women's basketball, women's tennis, sports medicine, academic services, compliance, student-athlete development, gender equity efforts, drug testing and coordination of coaches and staff meetings. She also serves as a liaison to numerous campus constituents and represents the department on varies ACC and institutional committees.

Prior to UM, Strawley concluded her second tour with the NCAA as the Director of Academic and Membership Affairs. In this role, Strawley was instrumental in providing leadership in the areas of academic governance and development of academic policy. She was the staff liaison to the NCAA Division I Committee on Academic Performance and the NCAA Division I Academic Cabinet.

Strawley also managed national office partnerships and outreach to various academic and faculty associations. She served on the steering committee to review the Academic and Membership Affairs department's business practices examining the department's operations, efficiencies and structure and is involved in a variety of other departmental internal operations, including coordinating the internal operations for the department's senior management team.

Strawley rejoined the NCAA after serving as the Associate Athletics Director for Intercollegiate Sport Programs and senior woman administrator at Columbia University from 2007-10. While at Columbia, she oversaw numerous varsity sport programs including football.

Prior to her tenure at Columbia, Jennifer was the Director of Membership Services and Student-Athlete Reinstatement at the NCAA. During this time Strawley served as a liaison to numerous NCAA committees and task forces, including the NCAA Divisions I, II and III Student-Athlete Reinstatement Committees, the NCAA Olympic Sports Liaison Committee, the United States Olympic Committee/NCAA Task Force and the working group appointed to review trends in initial eligibility.

Strawley first joined the NCAA in 1998 as an enforcement services intern. She is a 1998 graduate of the University of Pennsylvania where she earned her bachelor's degree in history. During her time at Penn, she was a two-year captain for the Quakers' softball team. She also is a member of her high school athletic hall of fame.

TIM WISE

Senior Associate AD / Facilities & Event Operations
South Carolina, 1996

Tim Wise is in his fourth year as the Senior Associate Athletic Director for Facilities and Event Operations at the University of Miami. Wise joined the UM staff in June 2012.

Wise has oversight of the following areas:

- Facilities and Maintenance Services
- Capital Projects/Construction
- Facilities Master Planning
- Event Management and Guest Services
- Camps/Clinics
- Risk Management
- Information Technology
- BankUnited Center/Global Spectrum Liaison
- Sun Life Stadium Liaison
- Marching Band Liaison
- Sport Oversight (rowing, soccer)

Wise, who has more than 18 years of experience in college athletics as an event manager, facilities director and administrator, was hired by the University of Wisconsin Athletic Department as assistant athletic director for events and facilities in August, 2008. In January 2012, he was named Interim Associate Athletic Director and elevated to the Senior Management Team with additional oversight of the University Ridge Golf Course and $125 million in capital projects.

Wise also had supervisory oversight of the UW Athletics event management, facilities, food and beverage and guest services units and oversaw an annual budget of approximately $15 million. He also served in a lead role in administrative coordination of UW Athletics concerts, summer camps and event parking.

Wise served as the director of facility maintenance at the University of Connecticut from August 2005 to August 2008. He oversaw daily operations of athletic facilities, projects and event operations as the assistant athletics director for facilities and operations at Eastern Michigan University from November 2003 to June 2005.

Wise was hired as the athletics event manager at the University of Denver in August 2000 and promoted to the Director of Athletics Events in August 2001 and served in that role until October 2003. Prior to his time at Denver, Wise was the event services manager at The Ohio State University's Schottenstein Center.

Wise was an event operations manager intern at Michigan State University from August 1998 to May 1999. His first position upon graduation from college was as a conference coordinator at the University of South Carolina from December 1996 to January 1998.

Wise has extensive experience working at NCAA and conference championship events. At Wisconsin he served on the departments Diversity Integration Group and was the representative to the City of Madison and UW Campus Joint Southeast Campus Area Committee. In the past, he served on Connecticut's Environmental Compliance Team as well as the schools Environmental Policy Advisory Council. He also served on the NCAA Woman of the Year Selection Committee and the NCAA Minority Opportunities and Interests Committee, three years as the Vice Chair. Wise earned the University of Denver Center for Multicultural Excellence Outstanding Staff Award in 2002-03.

Wise is a member of Alpha Phi Alpha, Fraternity, Inc. and served as the President of the local Mu Eta Lambda alumni chapter. He is a member of the Collegiate Event and Facility Management Association and was named to the Board of Directors in September 2011 and the 3rd Vice President in June 2012, 2nd Vice President in June 2013, and 1st Vice President in June 2014. Wise also has membership in the Minority Opportunities Athletic Association and the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics. He has participated in the NCAA Leadership Institute Continuing Education Series, the NCAA Leadership Institute for Ethnic Minority Males, the NACDA Mentoring Institute and NCAA Diversity Education Training. Most recently, Wise completed and graduated from the highly prestigious collegiate athletics executive leadership training program at the Sports Management Institute.

Wise is a 1996 graduate of the University of South Carolina with a bachelor's degree in business administration and earned a masters' degree in human performance and sport studies from the University of Tennessee in 1998.

ATHLETICS ADMINISTRATION

JASON LAYTON

Senior Associate AD / Communications & Sales
Saint Leo, 1999

Jason Layton joined the University of Miami in December of 2014 as the department's Senior Associate Athletics Director for Communications and Sales.

In this new position, Layton is responsible for managing the department's ticket sales, marketing, communication, website and social/digital media areas.

Layton's focus will center on generating revenue through ticket sales, marketing, corporate sponsorships,promotions, and licensing and multi-media rights.

Since his arrival, Miami has already seen exceptional growth in ticket sales and digital streaming with ESPN3. Under his watch, Miami has seen an increased level of season ticket sales in football and men's basketball, while transitioning to a new ticketing system in Paciolan.

Layton has also served as the primarly point of contact with ESPN in establishing the department's new digital network.

Layton, a Florida native, arrives in Miami after spending the previous two years at Colorado State University where he served as the department's Senior Associate Athletics Director for Sales and Marketing.

During his time in Fort Collins, Colo, Layton's ticket sales plans drove double digit increases in football, volleyball, men's basketball and women's basketball revenue and tickets sold.

In addition, Layton managed the implementation of the new Mountain West Digital network for CSU online streams, which achieved more than 70,000 views during its first year.

His oversight of CSURams.com saw a complete redesign. Under Layton's redesign, CSURams.com included a fan loyalty rewards program that rewarded fans for social activity, ticketing attendance and sponsorship engagement.

Prior to his arrival at Colorado State, Layton spent 13 years with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. In his 13 years with the club, he handled a variety of responsibilities from ticketing and luxury suite operations to advertising and business management.

Layton began his career with the Buccaneers as a customer service representative in 1999 before elevating to the role of Senior Director of Business Administration in 2011.

A native of Florida, Layton received his bachelor's and master's degrees from Saint Leo University in Saint Leo, Fla.

CRAIG ANDERSON

Senior Associate AD / Compliance
Pittsburgh, 2005

Craig Anderson begins his first year as the department's Senior Associate Athletic Director for Compliance.

In his current capacity, Anderson oversees the Hurricanes' five-person compliance office and serves as the departmental liason between the NCAA and all rules educational matters.

Anderson was hired as Associate AD for Compliance at the University of Miami on Feb. 27, 2013. He came to UM after spending three years as the Assistant Athletics Director for Compliance at NC State.

At UM, Anderson is responsible for managing all aspects of the compliance unit's effort, including educating the athletics department and university staff, boosters, coaches and student-athletes about NCAA and ACC regulations. In addition, he is responsible for overseeing the compliance monitoring systems related to recruiting, certification and eligibility. Anderson is also the Sport Supervisor for the women's golf program.

At NC State, he was charged with many roles, including monitoring all amateurism and eligibility issues, serving as the liaison to the academic support program for student-athletes, monitoring all initial eligibility/continuing eligibility processes and conducting NCAA rules education for coaches, staff, boosters and general public.

Before moving to NC State, Anderson served in a nearly three-year role as Director of Compliance at the University of Virginia from September 2007-July 2010. While in Charlottesville, he assisted with eligibility process, interpreted and researched NCAA rules for coaches and institutional staff members, monitored camps and clinics for all sports, coordinated annual coaches certification exams and coordinated transfer issues.

Anderson began his career as an Assistant Director of Compliance, spending 14 months at UNLV from July 2006-September 2007.

A native of Painted Post, N.Y., Anderson graduated from the University of Pittsburgh in 2005 with a bachelor's degree in political science. A year later, he graduated from Marshall University with a master's degree in athletic administration.

PERSONAL

Hometown: Wheaton, Ill.

Katie Meier completed her 10th season as the head coach of the Hurricanes' women's basketball program in 2014-15. A well-known and respected figure in women's basketball, Meier has worked tirelessly to put her mark on Miami's program and to build a winning tradition.

In 2014-15, Meier guided her team to a sixth-consecutive postseason, a fourth trip to the NCAA Tournament in the last five years, and a fifth 20-plus win season in the last six years, all program records.

In January 2014, Meier was named a co-recipient of the 2013 USA Basketball National Coach of the Year award after leading the USA U-19 team to a gold medal and perfect 9-0 record at the 2013 FIBA U-19 World Championship.

All of her hard work was rewarded after the 2010-11 season when she was named the Associated Press National Coach of the Year - sharing the award with Connecticut's Geno Auriemma and Stanford's Tara VanDerveer.

That season, Meier led the Hurricanes into the NCAA tournament for the first time since 2004 and their win over Gardner-Webb in the first round was the first tournament win for Miami since 1993. The Canes entered the 2010-11 season with high internal expectations, but were picked eighth in the Preseason ACC Poll after a season in which they were the No. 12 seed in the ACC Tournament.

However, the Hurricanes exceeded all of the outside expectations and, at one point, won 17-straight games. They were a perfect 20-0 inside the BankUnited Center and finished 12-2 in ACC play - earning their first regular season conference title since joining the league in 2004. As a reward, Meier was named the ACC Coach of the Year and later would be selected as the WBCA/RUSSELL ATHLETIC Region 2 Coach of the Year, as voted on by her peers.

Meier continued that success into the 2011-12 season, a year in which the Canes accomplished many firsts for the program.

Miami defeated Maryland - the eventual ACC Tournament champ - twice during the regular season, the first when the Terrapins were ranked fifth in the nation. It was the first time in program history that the Hurricanes had defeated a top-five team. Later in the year, UM ascended to its highest ranking ever, also at No. 5.

The Hurricanes have proved to be formidable on the court in the BankUnited Center, as the 2011-12 season saw Miami go undefeated at home for the second-consecutive season. Their 16-0 mark on the year pushed the Canes record home win streak to 40-straight games. Only Stanford ended the season with a longer active streak.

For her dedication to the University of Miami and the athletic department, Meier was signed to a two-year contract extension, securing the Wheaton, Ill., native through the 2017-18 season. Prior to the 2014-15 season, Meier received another extension, through the 2020-21 campaign, and donated $75,000 back to the school to go towards women's athletics as well as challenged to community to contribute too.

Five people who have been assistants for Meier during her head coaching career have gone on to earn Division I head coaching positions: Lynn Bria (Stetson), Amanda Butler (Florida), Darrick Gibbs (North Florida), Carolyn Kieger (Marquette) and Stephanie McCormick (Western Carolina).

Through the 2014-15 season, Meier has a career record of 259-179, including a 183-134 mark at Miami.

A New Era

Hired April 19, 2005, Meier was appointed by then-Miami AD Paul Dee in front of national and local media, fans, alumni and support staff, signifying the beginning of a new era.

Following an unprecedented career as one of the greatest athletes to ever play in the Atlantic Coast Conference, Meier quickly established herself in the coaching ranks. Following an impressive four-year tenure as the head coach at Charlotte where she helped bring the 49er program into national prominence, Meier made it clear that her goal was to make Miami one of the premier women's basketball programs in the country.

MEIER'S CAREER RECORDS

School	Years	Overall	Conference
Charlotte	2001-05	76-45	36-20
Miami	2005-pres.	183-134	69-81
Overall	14	259-179	105-101

Creating a Winning Program

In her first season, Meier wasted little time in making the first steps towards those goals. After receiving little attention in the ACC preseason polls, the Hurricanes posted an impressive overall record of 17-13. They fought through a conference that would send nine teams to the postseason, including three to the NCAA Final Four. Miami finished with a sixth-place, 6-8 record in ACC play en route to earning a berth into the second round of the 2006 Women's National Invitation Tournament.

During the season, Miami posted wins over ranked teams such as No. 25 Mississippi, No. 21 Boston College and No. 25 Virginia Tech, and nearly knocked off then-No. 1 Duke in double overtime. The Hurricanes also recorded wins over two eventual conference champions in Hartford (America East) and Oakland (Mid-Continent). Under Meier's direction, in 2005-06, standout Tamara James produced one of the greatest seasons ever seen by a UM player, becoming the Miami's all-time leading scorer. James was selected with the eighth overall pick in the 2006 WNBA Draft by the Washington Mystics.

In Meier's second season in 2006-07, the Hurricanes got off to a strong start, winning seven of their first eight games--including a 79-70 win over Indiana to claim the UM Thanksgiving Tournament title. On Dec. 1, Meier picked up her 100th career victory as the Hurricanes defeated Jackson State, 77-50. However, with only eight healthy players to call upon by the start of the ACC schedule, Miami faced challenge after challenge competing in a league that ranked among the top-three strongest women's basketball conferences nationally and produced two of the NCAA Tournament's four No. 1 seeds in 2006-07.

Renee Taylor emerged as the ACC's leading scorer--upholding Miami's streak of producing the league's leading scorer in all three years it had been a member. The All-ACC Second Team selection set school records in single-game scoring with 42 points at Houston and becoming the 19th Hurricane to score at least 1,000 points--and just the sixth to do so in her first two seasons. In addition, transfer Maurita Reid emerged as a defensive threat, tying the school record with 10 steals versus Wake Forest and finishing among the ACC's leaders and NCAA's top 10 in steals per game.

The 2007-08 season, Meier's third with the Hurricanes, saw Maurita Reid continue her rise among the ACC elite. The senior was nothing short of impressive shooting beyond the arc and picking opponent's pockets. She hit four or more 3-pointers on 10 different occasions and finished the season with 110 steals, good for second in the conference and fifth in the NCAA. The Queens, N.Y. native led the team in points (15.3 ppg) and rebounding (5.6 rpg) and was named to the All-ACC Defensive Team.

With the No. 21-ranked incoming recruiting class, Meier and the Hurricanes saw significant improvement during the 2008-09 season. The freshman class was highlighted by McDonald's All-American Shenise Johnson - out of Henrietta, N.Y. - and Riquna Williams - from nearby Pahokee, Fla.

Johnson lived up to the hype, as she was the team leader on the season in points, rebounds, assists and steals. Under Meier's guidance, Johnson was named the ACC Rookie of the Week on three occasions and was named to the ACC All-Freshmen team as well as ACC Honorable Mention. The versatile guard/forward also led the U19 USA team to a gold medal finish in the 2009 World Championships in Bangkok, Thailand.

The 2009-10 season was one of the most successful in program history. Under Meier's vision, the Hurricanes advanced to the WNIT Championship game. Miami posted a 22-14 overall record - the first 20-win campaign since the 2002-03 season and just the eighth all-time in history.

In her sophomore season, Johnson was joined by a healthy Riquna Williams and the duo racked up accolades throughout the season. Johnson was named first team All-ACC, while Williams garnered second-team honors. The tandem led Miami to a 5-1 WNIT record - the deepest postseason run in team history - with both earning all-tournament honors along the way.

Following the 2009-10 campaign, then-Miami AD Kirby Hocutt announced that Meier signed a contract extension through 2015.

"We are excited about the tremendous progress our women's basketball team achieved this past season," said Hocutt. "Coach Meier continues to assemble a special group of talented young women at the University of Miami and we look forward to the future success of our program."

Miami's success proved to be immediate, as it earned a conference regular season title in 2010-11 and returned to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in seven seasons.

Johnson and Williams proved to be the All-America candidates that they were expect to come. In fact, Johnson was named to four different All-America squads, including the prestigious WBCA/State Farm Coaches' All-America Team. She also earned AP, USBWA and Full Court Press honors and became the second player in program history to be named the conference player of the year (Frances Savage - BIG EAST - 1992). Johnson also garnered All-ACC Defensive Team honors for the second-straight season and was named to the ACC Tournament Team. Williams, along with Johnson, was named first team All-ACC and was the conference scoring champion, pouring in 21.7 points per game.

The duo combined for seven ACC Player of the Week accolades on the season as Williams took home the award on four occasions. No other team in the league was recognized more than twice for the weekly honor.

The season also saw the emergence of sophomore forward Morgan Stroman. The 6-foot-1, 2009 McDonald's All-American matched Johnson for the team lead with 11 double-doubles on the season, as she scored 13.6 points and grabbed 8.2 rebounds per game. For her efforts she was named third team All-ACC.

Miami's success continued into the 2011-12 season. The Canes finished second in the conference standings with a record of 14-2 and were 26-6 overall. UM also defeated the eventual conference tournament champion - Maryland - both times they battled in the regular season.

Seniors Shenise Johnson and Riquna Williams continued to live up to the hype of being the nation's top backcourt duo as they were second and third in the league in scoring and each were again named first team All-ACC. The accolade was the third-straight honor for Johnson and the second for Williams. Johnson was also named to the All-ACC Defensive Team for the third-consecutive season. Johnson earned a place on five different All-America teams, including the WBCA squad for the second-straight year. Williams eanred AP All-America third team recognition in her final collegiate campaign as well.

Unfortunately, Morgan Stroman suffered a season-ending injury midway through the conference schedule, leaving a seemingly insurmountable void in the lineup. However, junior guard Stefanie Yderstrom stepped up to the occasion. The native of Sweden ended the season with more 3-pointers than any other player in the league as was rewarded with a Third Team All-ACC selection.

Miami once again advanced to the NCAA Tournament as a No. 3 seed. The Canes traveled to Spokane, Wash., and defeated the No. 14 seed, Idaho State in the first round, but fell to host Gonzaga in the second.

The Hurricanes went to a school record third-straight NCAA Tournament in 2012-13, earning a No. 8 seed. Miami dropped its first round contest to ninth-seeded Iowa, the host school, but picked up two top-10 wins during the season. Meier's Hurricanes defeated No. 6/7 Penn State and knocked off No. 5/4 Duke on senior day, marking the first win over a team in the top four of either poll in program history and the school's first win over the Blue Devils, who went 20-1 against ACC opponents that season, including winning the ACC Tournament. Stroman averaged 12.9 points and 8.8 rebounds, while Yderstrom posted 11.7 points per game, and both received First Team All-ACC honors.

After reaching the WNIT in 2014, Meier guided the Hurricanes back to the NCAA Tournament in 2015 and the 11th-seeded Hurricanes defeated No. 6 seed Washington in the first round, before dropping their second round matchup against third-seeded Iowa, the host school. The victory over the Huskies made Meier the first coach in program history to win an NCAA Tournament game in three different years.

Earlier in the 2014-15 season, Meier also led the Hurricanes to the program's first win over a team in the top four of the AP Poll. They defeated No. 4/4 Notre Dame, 78-63, the Fighting Irish's only loss in their first two years in the ACC. Sophomore guard Adrienne Motley scored 32 points in the game and went on to be named First Team All-ACC by both the Blue Ribbon Panel and the ACC Coaches after averaging 16.9 points on 49.2 percent shooting. Meier also earned her 250th career win during the season.

Establishing Her Legacy as a Player

Meier's success as a coach is a direct reflection of her playing career as a standout at Duke University. A four-year letter winner for the Blue Devils under head coach Debbie Leonard from 1986-90, Meier's name is scattered throughout the Duke record books.

She currently ranks among the school's all-time career leaders in scoring average (16.2 points per game), steals (232), free throws made (447) and free throws attempted (624). She is also listed among Duke's leaders in career points (1,761), field goals made (653), field goals attempted (1,283), assists (409) and rebounding average (6.1 rebounds per game).

Meier wasted no time making her mark at Duke, earning ACC Rookie of the Year and Basketball Yearbook Freshman All-America honors in 1986. Meier injured her knee in 1988 during her junior season and ultimately missed the entire 1988-89 campaign while recovering.

Meier returned to Duke for her senior season in 1990 without missing a beat, earning Kodak/WBCA District 2 All-America and All-ACC first team accolades while being named the Blue Devils' most valuable player.

In 2002, Meier was honored by Duke for her efforts as a player when she was named to the inaugural induction class in the Blue Devils' Hall of Honor. That same year Meier was named to the Atlantic Coast Conference's 50th Anniversary Team. In 2006, she was once again honored by the conference when she was named one of 12 ACC Tournament Legends at the 2006 ACC Women's Basketball Tournament.

Meier's success on the court was only outdone by her accomplishments in the classroom. She was named to the Dean's List from 1986-88. In 1988 she also earned GTE Academic All-America Second Team honors.

After receiving a bachelor's degree in English literature with cum laude honors in 1989, Meier went on to earn a master's degree in teaching English from Duke in 1990.

Following her career at Duke, Meier moved overseas to play three seasons with BBC Mini-Flat Waregem in Belgium from 1990-93. There, she helped lead her team to three First Division regular season titles and one Belgian Cup Championship. While in Belgium, Meier also spent time teaching classes of conversational English while coaching teams of 15- to 17-year-olds.

A native of Wheaton, Ill., Meier graduated from Wheaton High School in 1985 and in October 2009 was inducted into her high school's athletic hall of fame.

Assistant Coach Octavia Blue

Fourth Season | Miami, 1998

The University of Miami welcomed back one of its own when women's basketball head coach Katie Meier named Octavia Blue a Hurricanes assistant coach May 2, 2012.

A Miami player from 1994-98, Blue now begins season four on staff. She is the Hurricanes' recruiting coordinator and is responsible for the development of Miami's post players.

Three seasons into her stint at Miami, Blue has coached three All-ACC players in guard Adrienne Motley, forward Morgan Stroman and guard Stefanie Yderstrom. Under the tutelage of Blue and the Miami coaching staff, former Hurricane center Shawnice "Pepper" Wilson signed with the WNBA's Minnesota Lynx, while Stroman inked a deal to play professionally in Spain. Additionally, forward Jassany Williams inked a contract in Switzerland, guard Suriya McGuire signed with a professional team in Iceland and forward Maria Brown joined a team in France.

In addition to Blue's presence on the recruiting trail and post player development, she has also coached the Hurricanes to a trio of postseason appearances—the NCAA Tournament in 2013 and 2015, and the WNIT in 2014.

Prior to her return to Miami, Blue spent three seasons as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Georgia Tech. During her time in Atlanta, the Yellow Jackets posted three 20-plus win seasons, made three NCAA tournament appearances and reeled in two top-25 recruiting classes (No. 24 in 2011 and No. 13 in 2012).

Also developing post players at Georgia Tech, Blue coached three All-ACC players and three WNBA Draft picks. Post player Brigitte Ardossi was drafted by the Atlanta Dream in the second round in 2010, Alex Montgomery was taken in the first round by the New York Liberty in 2011 and another post player, Sasha Goodlett was picked in the first round in 2012 by the Indiana Fever.

Blue's first season as an assistant coach was in 2008-09 at St. John's, where she helped the Red Storm advance to the WNIT. Under the guidance of Blue, post player Dashena Stevens was named the 2008-09 BIG EAST Rookie of the Year.

From 1994-98, Blue amassed 1,724 points as a Hurricane, then placing her fourth in program history and still good for seventh. She shot a school record 45.3 percent from 3-point range as a senior in 1997-98 before going on to play a nine-year professional basketball career.

After her decorated collegiate career, Blue was selected No. 15 overall in 1998 by the Los Angeles Sparks, becoming Miami's first WNBA Draft pick.

She had a lengthy professional career that lasted from 1998-2006, which included playing for two WNBA teams (Sparks and Houston Comets) and international clubs in Greece, Israel, France, Turkey and Poland.

Blue returned to Miami to complete her degree in sociology/sport management in 2007 and, in 2008, was inducted into the UM Sports Hall of Fame and named an ACC Women's Basketball Legend.

Assistant Coach Tia Jackson

First Season | Iowa, 1995

Tia Jackson was hired as an assistant coach for the University of Miami women's basketball program May 7, 2015.

A 19-year coaching veteran with four years of head coaching experience, Jackson comes to Miami after spending the past four seasons as an assistant under Hall of Fame coach C. Vivian Stringer at Rutgers University.

Jackson, who has both played and coached in the Final Four, was the head coach at Washington from 2007-11. While there, she signed a number of talented recruiting classes, and her 2008 recruiting haul was ranked No. 11 in the nation.

After the 2011 season, Jackson joined the Rutgers coaching staff and helped guide the Scarlet Knights to a trio of postseason appearances, including two trips to the NCAA Tournament. This past season, Rutgers advanced to the second round for the first time since 2011.

In each of Jackson's first two years at Rutgers, the Scarlet Knights signed the nation's third-ranked recruiting class.

Jackson began her coaching career as an assistant at Virginia Commonwealth University just one year after graduating from college. She worked for the Rams from 1996-1999.

After her three seasons at VCU, Jackson spent one year as an assistant coach at Stanford University, working under another Hall of Fame coach, Tara VanDerveer, at one of the nation's most tradition-rich programs.

The Cardinal made the second round of the NCAA Tournament in Jackson's lone season in Palo Alto, Calif. Jackson then moved south in the Golden State and joined the staff at UCLA, where she was an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator.

In five years with the Bruins, Jackson helped the program sign a pair of top-10 recruiting classes and ink four McDonald's and/or WBCA All-Americans. UCLA made the NCAA Tournament in 2004, its first appearance in four years.

After five seasons at UCLA, Jackson went to Duke University, where she worked an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator from 2005-07. In both of her years in Durham, N.C., Jackson helped the Blue Devils sign top-five recruiting classes featuring a quartet of McDonald's All-Americans.

Duke made the NCAA Championship for the second time in program history in Jackson's first year on staff and reached the Sweet 16 the following season. She is now back in the ACC eight years later.

Originally from Salisbury, Md., Jackson scored 3,108 points in her career at Mardela Springs High School, before moving on to play for Stringer at the University of Iowa.

The Hawkeyes finished in the top 25 four times during Jackson's career and advanced to the Final Four in 1993, ending the season with a 27-4 record. She was named to the Mideast Regional All-Tournament team that year.

Jackson averaged 10.2 points, 4.4 rebounds and 1.5 steals per game as a Hawkeye and graduated from Iowa in 1995. A two-time All-Big Ten Honorable Mention, Jackson ranks top-25 all-time at Iowa in points and rebounds, as well as No. 12 in steals, through the 2014-15 season.

Selected ninth in the 1997 WNBA Draft by the Phoenix Mercury, Jackson helped the team finish first in the Western Conference during the league's inaugural season.

Assistant Coach Fitzroy Anthony

First Season | Palm Beach Atlantic, 2008

Fitzroy Anthony was named an assistant coach for the University of Miami women's basketball program May 18, 2015.

Anthony had been an assistant coach at Florida Atlantic University for the past three seasons and helped the Owls make the move from the Sun Belt to Conference USA in his second year with the program.

During his three years at FAU, Anthony primarily worked with the team's guards, and did so with great success. This past season, the Owls had one backcourt player named First Team All-Conference USA and another selected to the league's all-freshman team.

Anthony played a key part in the Owls' scouting, defensive game planning and academic mentoring, while also handling all of the team's scheduling.

A stellar recruiter, Anthony helped FAU sign the second-ranked recruiting class in the conference in 2014, according to Collegiate Girls Basketball Report.

In Anthony's second season in Boca Raton, Fla., he aided in guiding the Owls to their second winning season since 2005-06 and their second-most wins during that stretch.

Well-connected in South Florida, Anthony was the head coach at Coral Springs Charter School for two years, prior to making the move to FAU in August 2012. He led the Panthers to 20-wins seasons both years and was named the Broward County Athletic Association Coach of the Year in 2012.

Anthony directed the Panthers to their first regional and district championships in 2012, as well as their first berth in the Final Four of the state tournament. Four players he coached at Coral Springs Charter School went on to play Division I basketball.

Additionally, Anthony has experience coaching AAU basketball in South Florida and won over 80 percent of his games on the sidelines. Seven of his players proceeded to play collegiately in the ACC, SEC or Big 12.

Born in Antigua, Anthony moved to Boca Raton at age 12. He played basketball at Olympic Heights High School and then at Palm Beach Atlantic University, where he graduated in 2008 with a bachelor's degree in education.

Lonnette Hall

Director of Basketball Operations / Coordinator of Recruiting

Ninth Season | Cal State Northridge, 1994

University of Miami Head Coach Katie Meier announced in May 2012 that Lonnette Hall had been added to her staff as the director of women's basketball operations. Hall served as an assistant coach with the Hurricanes from 2007-10 and was a driving force behind the 2008 recruiting class that included Shenise Johnson, Riquna Williams and Sylvia Bullock.

The same position was held by Hall during the 2006-07 season, before she moved into her coaching role. Hall acts as the team's liaison between the coaching staff and the academics, compliance and housing departments. Among some of her other duties will be season ticket holder relations.

Hall came to Miami following a one-year stint as the head girl's basketball coach at R.L. Paschal High School in Fort Worth, Texas, in 2004-05. In addition to the day-to-day coaching duties, Hall also managed the program's budget and marketing activities, and oversaw the team's booster club. She also organized HOOP Group, a youth basketball program in the Fort Worth area.

Hall spent six years at Texas Christian University, serving as an assistant coach with the Lady Frogs from 1999-2003 and as the Director of Basketball Operations during the 2003-04 season. As an assistant coach with the Lady Frogs, Hall helped guide TCU to three-consecutive NCAA Tournaments while coaching notable players such as Fort Lauderdale native and former All-American Sandora Irvin, who was later selected as the third overall pick in the 2005 WNBA Draft. Along with coaching, Hall's responsibilities included recruiting, practice and game preparation efforts, in addition to preparing the team's travel arrangements.

A native of Oxnard, Calif., Hall served in the United States Navy from 1986-88. She earned an associate's degree in art from Ventura Junior College in 1991 and went on to earn a bachelor's degree in kinesiology from California State University, Northridge in 1994. Hall added a master's degree in sports administration from the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse in 1996.

Margie Gill

Director of Basketball Operations / Special Assistant to the Head Coach

Second Season | Florida, 2003

Head women's basketball coach Katie Meier announced the hiring of Margie Gill as director of women's basketball operations/special assistant to the head coach in July 2014.

Gill has over 15 years of women's basketball operations experience, including seven years at both the University of Mississippi and the University of Florida. Gill has also spent time on campus away from athletics, having spent three years in an administrative capacity at Chowan University.

A graduate of Florida, Gill earned a degree in exercise science with an emphasis in sport management. She served as team manager at Florida under former Rebel coach Carol Ross for four years and was head manager her final two seasons. Upon completion of her classes, Gill moved into the director of basketball operations job at her alma mater and stayed with Ross and the Gators for seven more years.

A native of McKees Rocks, Pa., Gill is married to Steven Gill. The couple has one son, Riley.

Sarah Smoak

Director of Video Operations

First Season | Lynchburg, 2006

Sarah Smoak was hired July 14, 2015 as the director of video operations for the University of Miami women's basketball program.

Smoak has nearly eight years of experience working in women's basketball. She comes to Miami after spending two seasons at Coastal Carolina University as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator. At Coastal, Smoak was in charge of overseeing the recruiting calendar and planning all of the staff's contacts, evaluations and visits with prospects. In 2014, she helped the Chanticleers sign the highest-rated signing class in program history, according to the All-Star Girls Report.

Additionally, Smoak was involved in Coastal's scheduling and scouting, while also serving as its compliance liaison and admissions liaison. On the court, she was Coastal's wing position coach, and during her two years there, the Chanticleers set the program record for points in a game (121) and had their best start ever to conference play (4-0).

Prior to Coastal, Smoak spent nearly four years as the director of recruiting at Duke University. She organized recruiting communications, coordinated home visit presentations, managed the marketing of the program, directed camps and more.

Smoak helped the Blue Devils land in the top 10 of ESPN HoopGurlz's recruiting class rankings all four years, including the top spot in the nation in 2010, while signing five top-10 recruits during that stretch. Duke won the ACC regular season championship and reached the Elite Eight every year she was the team's director of recruiting.

Before being hired full-time at Duke, Smoak served as a basketball intern for the Blue Devils from August 2008 to July 2009. Smoak was also an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at William Peace University from August 2007 to June 2008.

A Charlotte, N.C. native, Smoak earned a bachelor's degree in exercise physiology with a concentration in coaching in 2006 from Lynchburg College, where she was a four-year basketball letter winner. In her final season, Smoak was the team captain, an Old Dominion Athletic Conference Senior All-Star Team selection and an ODAC Academic All-Conference honoree.

Brittany Smith

Graduate Assistant

First Season | Dillard, 2015

Brittany Smith joined the University of Miami women's basketball staff as a graduate assistant prior to the 2015-16 season.

Smith played four years of basketball at Dillard University in New Orleans and was a team captain as both a junior and a senior. She averaged 6.2 points per game in 2014-15, her final season with the Blue Devils.

A Houston native, Smith graduated from Dillard in 2015 with a degree in accounting and is now enrolled in the sport administration master's program at Miami.

Alana Brown

Athletic Trainer

Seventh Season | UCF, 2003

Alana Brown is in her first year as an associate athletic trainer at the University of Miami, after spending nearly six years as an assistant athletic trainer. She is primarily responsible for the health care of the women's basketball team and spirit squad.

Prior to working with UM, she was an athletic trainer with Select Medical Corporation in Orlando, where she worked with the entertainment cast members at Disney World. Her responsibilities included immediate care, recognition, greenroom and show coverage, individual strength and conditioning program design and implementation and providing interventions.

Before working at Disney World, she served as an assistant athletic trainer for Ohio University for more than two years, handling the daily medical needs for the women's basketball, women's volleyball and softball teams. In addition to handling all general athletic training responsibilities, she also served as an approved clinical instructor for CAATE (Commission on Accreditation of Athletic Training Education).

Brown earned her bachelor's degree in science at the University of Central Florida in 2003 and added a master's degree in the administration of higher education with a minor in sports management in 2005 from Auburn University. She was a graduate assistant athletic trainer for the Tigers, primarily covering the football and equestrian teams.

A certified kinesio taping practitioner, a certified performance enhancement specialist and a certified corrective exercise specialist, she is married to former UM athletic trainer Wes Brown.

Natalie Fontela

Athletic Trainer

First Season | Miami, 2013

Natalie Fontela became an assistant athletic trainer at the University of Miami in July 2015.

A graduate of the University of Miami, Fontela earned her bachelor's degree in athletic training in 2013. She spent the next two years as a graduate assistant athletic trainer at Florida State University, working with the school's cross country and track & field programs from 2013-2015.

A native of Miami, Fontela returned to her alma mater after earning a master's degree in sport management from Florida State in 2015.

Tyler Farwell

Strenth & Conditioning Coach

First Season | Illinois State, 2010

Tyler Farwell was named an assistant strength coach at the University of Miami June 17, 2015 to primarily work with the school's women's basketball and swimming teams.

Farwell holds certifications from the American Red Cross, Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association, National Strength and Conditioning Association and USA Weightlifting. Before coming to Miami, Farwell was an exercise physiologist at Homestead Air Reserve Base since March 2014. He worked on physical activity programs with government personnel, provided training to support units and was the expert on exercise science, among other responsibilities.

In addition, Farwell has owned and operated Tyler Farwell Strength Inc. in Miami since May 2013. There, Farwell oversees all aspects of athletic performance, including developing individual work and nutrition plans, injury preventions and flexibility and mobility protocols. Through Tyler Farwell Strength Inc., he was also the head strength coach at Gulliver Prep from November 2013 to May 2015.

Prior to coming to South Florida, Farwell was a graduate assistant/assistant strength and conditioning coach at Illinois State University for three years, working with nearly a dozen Redbird athletic programs. Farwell's responsibilities included implementing nutritional supplementation programs, coordinating yearly strength programs and helping design the Redbird Performance Nutrition program.

From October 2009 to May 2011, Farwell was a performance coach at the Orthopedic and Sports Enhancement Center in Bloomington, Ill. He conducted resistance training demonstrations, supervised workouts and administered Frappier Acceleration protocols. Farwell also has additional experience with the United States Armed Forces. From July 2004 to December 2008, he was the leading petty officer/range safety officer on the USS Peleliu in San Diego. There, Farwell earned the Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal and was certified as an Enlisted Surface Warfare Specialist.

A native of Sterling, Ill., Farwell graduated summa cum laude from Illinois State in 2010 with a bachelor's degree in exercise science. He returned to his alma mater for graduate school and earned his master's degree in exercise physiology in 2012. Farwell is also nearing completion of a didactic program in dietetics coursework at Illinois State.

RETIRED/HONORED NUMBERS

#11 MARIA RIVERA
1984-88

1984 WBY Freshman All-American
1988 Kodak/WBCA Honorable Mention All-American
UM Sports Hall of Fame
Miami's all-time leader in field goals made
Second in scoring and steals, sixth in assists at UM
Only Hurricane to score 40-plus points multiple times

As one of the most electric scorers ever to step on the court and play at the University of Miami, Maria Rivera left her mark at UM as a four-year standout with the Hurricanes. During her playing career from 1984-88, Rivera reached a level never before achieved at Miami and left UM as the school record holder in several categories, including career points with 2,358.

Rivera came to Miami by way of Canovana, Puerto Rico, where, at just the age of 14, she was named the 1978 Player of the Year by the Puerto Rican Olympic Committee before going on to star on the Puerto Rican 1979 and 1983 Pan American Teams.

From day one she showed an unprecedented desire to achieve at UM. Speaking only Spanish, Rivera borrowed $2,000 dollars from a bank to enroll in an intense fast-paced English program to pass an English equivalency exam required to enroll at Miami, and just three months later she was on campus and playing for the Hurricanes.

Rivera averaged 18.7 points and 5.3 assists, leading the Hurricanes in scoring in 13-of-28 games in 1984-85, her first season at UM. That season she showed what lay ahead on several occasion, including a school-record setting performance against Lamar where she hit 10-of-11 shots from the field and a 33-point outing against Florida. Following the conclusion of the regular season, she was named to the Women's Basketball Yearbook Freshman All-America Team.

The following season she stepped up her game, averaging 21.4 points, 4.4 rebounds and 3.3 assists per game. Her 21.4 points per game was the second-highest single-season average in UM history and her 579 points was the third-highest ever at Miami.

Rivera's junior season was highlighted by yet another impressive scoring output, averaging 20.9 points, which ranked third all-time at UM just behind her previous season's mark. That season was full of memorable achievements, including a then-career high 38-point game in UM's opener against Monmouth, but none were more exciting than when she surpassed former Hurricane Sylvia Wilson to become Miami's all-time leading scorer.

Rivera also put together a memorable senior campaign. Needing 29 points to break former men's basketball legend Rick Barry's UM basketball record of 2,298 points, Rivera scored 30 points in the first half of a Feb. 25 contest with UCF en route to a then-school-record 41 points to become the University of Miami's all-time leading scorer in both men's and women's basketball.

Upon finishing her career with the Hurricanes, Rivera left as the school record-holder in 16 separate categories—including points (2,358), scoring average (21.1 ppg), steals (382) and field goals made (891) and attempted (1,931) to firmly ensure her place as one of the greatest basketball players to ever play at the University of Miami.

#24 FRANCES SAVAGE
1988-92

1990 WNIT All-Tournament Team
1991 AP Second Team All-American
1991 Kodak/WBCA Honorable Mention All-American
1992 Sports Illustrated Player of the Year
1992 Kodak/WBCA First Team All-American
1992 BIG EAST Player of the Year
1992 BIG EAST Tournament MVP
1992 First Team All-BIG EAST
1992 BIG EAST Most Improved Player
UM Sports Hall of Fame
ACC Legend
Iron Arrow Society
Third in rebounding, fourth in scoring at UM

Frances Savage is arguably one of the best players to ever don a uniform at the University of Miami. During her four-year career from 1988-91 Savage etched her name throughout the UM record books. She left as the school's second all-time leading scorer with 2,184 points and first all-time with a career 23.2 scoring average—despite missing all but two games of her senior season.

The 12th child of a household of 13 children, the Fort Lauderdale, Florida native averaged greater than 30 points per game during her senior season at Sunrise Piper High School and was named the Miami Herald's Broward Player of the Year in 1985 and 1987.

After drawing All-America honors as a high school standout, Savage chose to attend the University of Miami, but was forced to sit out her freshman season in 1987 while fulfilling academic requirements. Once her opportunity arose in 1988, Savage burst onto the scene at UM, scoring 32 points in her collegiate debut versus Southwest Missouri State—the most points scored by a Miami player in their opening game. She would go on to start and score double figures in all 29 games of the 1988 season, averaging 22.4 points and 9.2 rebounds per game.

As a preseason All-America candidate, Savage's junior season picked up where the 1988 season left off, scoring double figures in all 31 games that season while leading the team in points per game (23.6), rebounds per game (9.5), steals (71), free throw percentage (.786) and field goal percentage (.540). In 1990, Savage opened her senior season with back-to-back 30-point outings, but was lost for the year with a torn ACL suffered in just the second game of the season.

Granted a fifth year of eligibility, in 1991, Savage returned to score 31 points in her first start against in-state rival Florida. She tied the then-school record with 41 points in UM's win over Providence during the course of the Hurricanes' 30-game win streak.

Averaging 23.3 points and 10.6 rebounds per game, Savage helped lead the Hurricanes to the BIG EAST Championship title in only their first season in the conference and was named both the BIG EAST and Sports Illustrated Player of the Year, in addition to garnering Kodak/WBCA All-America honors.

Savage left UM as one of the most decorated athletes in school history, holding nine Hurricane records as well as finishing as the school's second all-time leading scorer, and has since been inducted into the UM Sports Hall of Fame and the University of Miami's "Iron Arrow" Society—the highest honor bestowed on an individual by the university.

#2 TAMARA JAMES
2002-06

2003 Kodak/WBCA & AP Honorable Mention All-American
2004 Full Court Press Honorable Mention All-American
2004 First Team All-BIG EAST Selection
2005 Kodak/WBCA & AP Honorable Mention All-American
2005 First Team All-ACC Selection
2006 WBNS Second Team All-American
2006 Full Court Press Third Team All-American
2006 First Team All-ACC Selection
UM Sports Hall of Fame
ACC Legend
Three-time conference scoring champion
Miami's all-time leader in scoring
Seventh in rebounding and steals at UM

From day one at the University of Miami, Tamara James made her mark as one of the top basketball players in program history. One of the country's most prolific players in her four collegiate seasons, James averaged 20.4 points per game and finished her career as Miami's all-time leading scorer with 2,406 points.

A standout guard at South Broward High School, James was ranked 14th in the nation by All-Star Girls Report in her senior season, which saw her average 21 points and 11 rebounds per game. She was named the Florida State Player of the Year in 2002.

James was a McDonald's All-American, Fourth Team Parade All-American and Nike All-American in high school before choosing to attend the University of Miami, where she helped turn the program into one of the nation's best. She recorded one of the best freshman seasons in UM history, becoming the only freshman in BIG EAST history to lead the league in scoring, with an average of 21.0 points per game. This total ranked her 12th nationally and seventh in Miami history. She scored double figures in 30 of 31 games played in the 2002-03 season.

Selected to the All-BIG EAST Preseason First Team, James' sophomore season continued in much the same fashion. She became the 17th player in UM history to reach 1,000 points, finishing the season ranked 14th in program history with 1,114. She scored a career-high 37 points in a win against Eastern Kentucky, and 22 points in 25 minutes in a win against Seton Hall. She earned All-BIG EAST First Team honors and was named BIG EAST Player of the Week twice on the season.

With Miami's move to the ACC in time for the 2004-2005 season, James became the second player in NCAA history to lead two major conferences in scoring. She led the Hurricanes in nearly every statistical category during her junior season, including field goals made (242), three point percentage (.328), rebounding (6.9 rpg) and average minutes played (36.1), and helped the Hurricanes to an NCAA Tournament berth.

In her senior season, James led the ACC in scoring with an average of 21.5 points per game and helped earn Miami a place in the WNIT Tournament in 2006. She passed UM Hall of Famer Maria Rivera's all-time scoring record as she netted 32 points against Florida International. During James' career, the Hurricanes earned a 70-47 record.

James not only left UM as the all-time leading scorer, but she also holds the all-time school records in free throws made and free throws attempted in addition to ranking in the top three all-time in nine different categories. She was the first-round draft pick of the WNBA's Washington Mystics in 2006 and has since played overseas for teams in Israel, Turkey and Spain. She was chosen as a member of the ACC Women's Basketball Legends Class of 2012.
